GENEALOGY SEMINAR Featuring: Dick Eastman

Dick Eastman has been involved in genealogy for more than 30 years. He has worked in the computer industry for more than 40 years in hardware, software, and managerial positions. On January 15, 1996, he launched Eastman's Online Genealogy Newsletter as an e-mail publication. The weekly newsletter has since grown into a daily publication, still available in e-mail but also now available on the World Wide Web. The present newsletter is read by more than 60,000 genealogists all over the world.

Saturday, February 18, 2012

Registration: 8:30 - 9:00 a.m. Seminar: 9:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

- Genealogy Searches on Google

Extracting the most genealogy information possible from everyone's favorite search engine!

- Using Online Genealogy Programs

A simple and down-to-earth explanation of what "the cloud" is and how genealogists can use Cloud Computing to simplify their own computer usage.

- Photographing Old or Delicate Documents or Photography

Use your computer BEFORE you snap the picture!

- The Family History World in 10 Years' Time

This talk looks in the crystal ball to discuss changing research trends, a changing audience and a look at changes being made now by "the cloud" and the growth of handheld devices that are "online all the time" as it affects genealogy.
